The screenshot shows the Childline website homepage. At the top, there is a blue header with the 'childline' logo and the tagline 'ONLINE, ON THE PHONE, ANYTIME'. Navigation links include 'Info and advice', 'Get support', 'Toolbox', 'Get involved', 'Your locker', and 'Sign in'. A search bar is located on the right. Below the header, a breadcrumb trail shows 'You are here / Home'. The main content area features a section titled 'HOW ARE YOU FEELING?' with buttons for 'Good', 'Okay', 'Bad', 'Anxious', 'Depressed', and 'Overwhelmed'. To the right, there is a box with the heading 'Share what's making you feel good.' and sub-sections for 'Share what's happening on the good days message board', 'Play a game.', and 'Find new ways to get involved.'. On the far right, there is a vertical sidebar with 'HIDE PAGE' and 'SAVE PAGE' buttons, and an information icon at the bottom.

The screenshot shows the Childline website interface. At the top, the URL is childline.org.uk/info-advice/bullying-abuse-safety/online-mobile-safety/. The main navigation bar includes the Childline logo, the tagline "ONLINE, ON THE PHONE, ANYTIME", and a "Call 0800 1111" button. Below this are several menu items: "Info and advice", "Get support", "Toolbox", "Get involved", and "Your locker" with a "Sign in" button. A breadcrumb trail indicates the current location: "You are here / Home / Info and advice / Bullying, abuse, safety and the law / Online safety". A search bar is also present. The main content area features a large orange banner for "ONLINE SAFETY" with the text: "You should feel good while you're online. To help you out, we've got tips, advice, and support you can use however you like." Below the banner is a section titled "On this page" with three links: "For everyday scrolling", "For the bigger questions", and "Support for you". The background of the page shows a young man smiling while using a smartphone, with a colorful, abstract graphic overlay.
