

March Fun Reading Challenge

Fun Ways to Read All Month Long!

Read in the dark using a torch.

Read while dressed up like a book character.

Read in a den/fort.

Read out loud in a funny voice.

What could come next? Read the story, then draw and write an extra page.

Do 3 jumping jacks / star jumps after reading page.

Read under a cosy blanket.

Read in a whisper.

Read on a screen (phone/tablet/computer).

Read outside.

Read to your toys.

Read to someone on the phone.

Read under the table.

Read while standing on one leg like a flamingo.

Retell the story to someone after you finish reading.

Read upside down.

Draw a picture of the story.

Balance a book on your head while you read.

Write a letter to a character in the book after reading.

Read whilst wearing a disguise!

Build a Lego scene of the story.

Make a reading pointer and use it to follow along while you read.

Record yourself reading and watch it back.

Read to a pet.

Read recipe instructions...and then make it!

Read a short story in a newspaper, magazine or comic.

Read a poem.

Read a book with a cover that is your favourite colour.

Read a non-fiction book.

Read a book that has been made into a film.

Choose your favourite 'day' and do it again!

How many challenges can you tick off?

