

Using an atlas or the Internet, make a list of 10 European countries and their capital cities.	Using an atlas or the Internet, choose one European country and draw a map marking its major cities and any interesting features.	Design and draw a poster persuading people to visit a European city of your choice.	Use the Internet to create a fact file about any European city.	Use the Internet to create a fact file about any European country.	Design and write a postcard, imagining that you have visited a European city of your choice. Tell the reader what you have liked and disliked about the city.
On a map of the UK, locate and mark the location of the following cities: London, Manchester, Birmingham, Edinburgh, Cardiff, Glasgow, Liverpool, Belfast, Bristol and Norwich.	Using the Internet, research the population of the three largest cities in any European country. Add these together to find the combined population of these cities.	 Year 5 Europe  home learning grid This grid contains ideas for home learning in addition to the Year 5 work on Google Classroom		Use the Internet to research and list the 10 tallest mountains in Europe.	Using an atlas or the Internet, choose 3 European rivers. List all the countries each river passes through.
On a map of the UK, locate and mark the location of the following rivers: Thames, Severn, Avon, Tyne, Mersey, Trent, Exe, Tweed and Wye.	On a map of the UK, locate and mark the location of the following mountains: Ben Nevis, Snowden, Scafell Pike, Carn Eige and Goatfell.	Research and display in a bar chart, the population of 5 different countries in Europe.	Create a poster, showing the impact of overpopulation on the environment.	Imagine you are living in an overpopulated city. Write a diary entry describing your home and what it feels like to be there.	Write a non-chronological report about the European country of your choice. Don't forget to include: introduction and conclusion; headings and subheadings; topic sentences; technical vocabulary; pictures and captions